OPENING DAY AT LATONIA.

BOOKMAKERS FURNISH THE BETTING IN DE-FIANCE OF STATE RACING COMMISSION.

Attendance and Racing Good-Old Honesty Wins the Feature Race-Friend Harry Shows His High Class Again.

Cincinnati, O., October 19.—The Latonia Jockey Club began its fall meeting today with bookmakers in line in defiance of the State Racing Commission's resolution that no other system of betting than the mutuels and auction pools shall be allowed at any of the tracks under their jurisdiction. Despite this being Monday, generally considered an off day in a racing way, the largest attendance, excepting the Fourth of July crowd, on any track in the state of Kentnecky this season was on hand. The sudden change of plans from the announced intention of having the bookmakers operate with the big slates to the small slates, caused a decrease in the expected unorber of layers, only thirteen, including the two fielders, drawing in. It is expected that twore bookmakers will draw in tomorrow. No show this aftom, who was appointed steward for this meeting, failed to arrive on account of having that after the commission, who was appointed steward for this meeting, failed to arrive on account of having missed train connections. Secretary Rouse of the racing commission, however, sent telegrams to the various members of the commission presumably to take action regarding Latonia's failure to comply the held tomorrow at Lexington, presumably to take action regarding Latonia's failure to comply the held tomorrow at Lexington, presumably to take action regarding Latonia's failure to comply the held tomorrow at Lexington. Today's card was riddled by withdrawals, brought the beauting, as it is said that Meave Chedand Young are sick and that Charles F. Grainger has other pressing business matters on hand that will prevent his trip to Lexington.

Today's card was riddled by withdrawals, brought about mainly through the failure of a number of the carded starters to arrive here in time. The sport, however, was excellent and fast time was recorded, in which Old Hoesy, the mide and a sixteenth race, were the starters, was the chief feature and it resulted to the state of the starter of the carded starters to a drive here in time. The sport,

OUTLINING NEW ORLEANS PLANS.

New Orleans, La., October 19.—President Heaslip continues to map out plans for the forthcoming winter meeting, to be inaugurated December 5, although the conditions of the stakes have not as yet been announced. Judge Joseph Murphy may be appointed presiding judge and handicapper, while it is believed pretty certain that Jack Campbell will be clerk of the scales. It has not yet been announced who will be starter, but it is more than likely that either William Murray, who has made his home here every winter for the past twelve years, or Mars Cassidy will officiate. As for the paddock and pattol judge, William Newman, a well-known local turfman, will in all probability be appointed to that position. President Heaslip has received hundreds of applications from horsemen throughout the country. The fact that Messrs. Keene, Whitney, Duryea and Belmont have shipped their star racers to Europe will in no way prevent the local track from securing high-class horses, so he says.

APPLEGATE HORSES START FOR CALIFORNIA.

Lexington, Ky., October 19.—Colonel W. E. Ap Lexington, Ky., October 19.—Colonel W. E. Applegate shipped seven thoroughbred yearlings from here this morning to Louisville, where W. T. Overton, Semproni. Sempronium and J. J. Flannigan's Mattie Mack were taken into the car, which left the Falls City tonight for San Francisco. J. J. Flannigan is in charge of the shipment. The yearlings are:

Bay colt, by Woolsthorpe—Volma.

Bay filly, by Woolsthorpe—Lillie M.

Bay filly, by Gameron—Laura Stone.

Bay colt, by Sasturtium—Lizzie D.

Bay colt, by Woolsthorpe—Gillian,

Bay filly, by Cesarion—Leopoldina.

Each of the first-named three, broken by Jimmy Ross, has shown quarters better than twenty-four seconds. The raciest-looking one of the collection is the Laura Stone colt.

ANOTHER RESULT OF HUGHES' COURSE.

New York, October 19.—Because of the passage of the Hart-Agnew bills the breeding bureau of the Jockey Club may not be able to continue its work in New York State another year. Fifty-five stallions are at present doing stud duty in thirty-nine different counties, and the reports of their keepers show that they have been liberally patronized by the breeders of their sections in 1908. This year the breeding bureau and metropolitan racing associations have offered $350 in special premiums through the agricultural associations in each of the counties where breeding bureau stallions were doing stud duty.

CORRECTION IN DALLAS RACE.

In the first race at Dallas, Texas, last Saturday twas Ida D. that was third and not Pepper Box, s was incorrectly sent from the track, Ida D. losed at 6 to 5, 1 to 2 and out.

RACING AT EMPIRE CITY TODAY.

Many Good Horses Named to Start-No Developments in the Case of Fair Play.

New York, October 19.—The opening day of Empire City's abbreviated fall meeting of four days at Yonkers holds out promise of good sport. The card of six races includes a valuable stake in the $2,000 Clark Memorial Handicap at six furlongs, a couple of races for two-year-olds at the same distance, engaging youngsters of good quality, and one condition and two selling races for older horses. Present weather indications are for rain and a consequent muddy track.

tion and two selling races for older horses. Present weather indications are for rain and a consequent muddy track.

August Belmont, when asked today if there were any new developments in regard to the Belmont Park Autumn Weight-for-Age Race, said that the promised investigation had not yet taken-place. It is said that Fair Play had a mild case of strangles while being cooled out after the big race. It is thought that this was caused by his having been fed with a wisp of dry hay. The attack, however, had absolutely no bearing on the Belmont horse's running, in the opinion of experts. There were no unbealthy or unnatural angles in evidence in the betting before the race. George Rose and William Cowan, the two heaviest operators in the east now, did not lay a wager against Fair Play, but held him out completely in their books. Neither did they receive any offers on Master Robert at the prevailing market odds of 8 to 1. Rose accepted just one bet on the winner of $1,000 to $800 from James Mc Manus, for place. Frank Gill, on the contrary, was heavily backed for place by the so-called wise betors, including Edward McDonald, Hops Laudeman, E. R. Bradley and others. The horse's owner, J. L. McCinnis, started this plunge when he bet George Rose $500 against $1,250. It is said that McGinnis commission on Frank Gill amounted to $1,000. The reason for this was the fact that he had worked for the Belmont Park Weight-for-Age Race on Thursday at Gravesend one mile and a half in 2:39 asily.

J. E. Widener will shortly ship the following horses to France: Mr. McCann, Mark Gumberts, Sheriff Williams, John M. P., Coligny and East

Sheriff Williams, John M. P., Collgny and East River.

There is a report that George Odom will race Trance, Juggler, Nimbus and a half dozen others at Oakland next winter.

F. C. Taylor left yesterday for California with Joe Madden and Schleswig.

A. J. Joyner was apprised by wireless of the defeat of Fair Play last Saturday. It is said that he sent a reply, but the nature of it was not divulged. Joyner has said more than once that Fair Play was one of the few horses that could run all day.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

J. Butler, at Louisville, added eight winners to bis total for 1908 last week, and increased his percentage one point. V. Powers, at the same track, scored seven during the six days of racing, while D. McCarthy and Gilbert, riding at Belmont Park, were home in front four times. The standing of the thirty leading jockeys from January 1 to and including the racing of October 17, their percentages and races won the past week are as follows:

BALLOT AND COLIN ABROAD.

New York, October 19.—Ballot and Colin are to be trained next year for bandicap and cup races, and there can be small doubt as to Ballot's standing up. Colin, however, has had a leg under suspicion pretty much all season and he may not stand the gaff. If he does not he will be retired forthwith to the stud. Since they train horses early on the other side, if Colin is to break down he is apt to go early. In that event he may serve some mares next spring.

Colin is popular in Great Britain. More than one breeder has already expressed a desire to mate good mares with him. Sam Darling has trained horses for Mr. Keene in the past, and it is possible that he may handle his string next year.

BELMONT PARK RACING STATISTICS.

The Westchester Racing Association's autumn meeting at Belmont Park, which opened October 5 and came to a close October 17, embraced eight racing days, and during that time forty-eight races, seven of them steeplechases, were decided, and the total distribution in stakes and purses was $79,100. This money went to sixty owners, twenty-seven of whom won $500 or more each, with J. R. Keene at the head of the list, A. Belmont second and G. M. Odom third, as follows:

Went to post at 2:18. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handly; second and third driving. Dr. Holzberg followed Arionette closely for a half mile and, wearing her down in the stretch, won going away. Arionette showed the most early speed and held on well through the last furlong. Harriet Rowe, away fast, ran in close pursuit to the stretch and tired. Elizabeth Harwood was away poorly and ran a bad race. Plume was never a serious contender. Tennessee Boy was well up for a half before tiring. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Winner—Ch. c, by Orlando—Alice Brand (trained by W. H. Fizer).

Went to post at 2:46. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second and third driving. Friend Harry, a good colt, followed T. M. Green under reserve in the early running and, moving by him in the stretch when called on, won in a canter. Buffons, from a slow beginning, came with a rush in the last furlong, but was impeded in the last seventy yards, but was going fast at the end. T. M. Green tired in the last furlong after a good display of early speed in pacemaking to the stretch. Alice George ran a good lace and would have been third in a few more strides. NOTES OF THE TURF.

Gywn Tompkins has shipped Jimmy Lane to War-renion, Va. The old cross-country campaigner has been a reliable breadwinner this season and is en-titled to a let-up.

Colonel Jack Chinn is credited with designs on the first Mexican Derby, and will rely principally on the progeny of the brilliant racer, Ort Wells, with an Oddfellow or two to help out.

The Weinberg brothers, of Germany, are quite the most successful owners in that country. They have done well this season and twenty-one of their horses have earned for them the goodly sum of $142,380.

won by Broomstick when he heat Irish Lad. racing the mile and a quarter in 2:02s, the American record for the distance; and the Test Handicap, when Hermis, with 133 pounds up, defeated Beldame in the fast time of 1:38 flat, will always be remembered as two of the most remarkable races in the history of that course.

history of that course.

A. D. Walstrom, owner of Jim Simpson, the colt which fell during the running of the Spokane Derby and was afterwards destroyed, threatens to sue the Spokane Fair Association for $5,000. Walstrom says that the association is responsible because of a defective fence, which, he claims, protruded out on the track, against a corner of which the horse struck his stifle, causing the fall.

have done well this season and twenty-one of their horses have earned for them the goodly sum of $142,380.

Over in England track athletes have been experimenting with oxygen with such favorable results that its use for horses has already been suggested, with some doubt as to whether it comes under the Jockey Club's rule forbidding stimulants, or not.

Mickey Shannon, who retired from the racing game a year ago, is credited with the engineering at Greenville of the greatest coup ever pulled off in Mississippi, when on Saturday last he furnished the winner of the first race in Beth Goodwin, which was shipped from Louisville for the occasion. Shannon and his followers, it is said, reaped a big harvest.

The passing away of the famous Brighton Beach track will no doubt recall many of the great performances decided over that course, one of the fastest in the country. The Brighton Handicap,

Record breaking performances over the Belmont Park track are not surprising, as the course is one of the fastest in the country and, with the best horses competing on it, the records for the different distances are always in danger of being broken. During the fall meeting, which terminated Saturday, several new records were made, the mile and a balf of Gowan in 23:32, and Delirium's feat of equaling the three-quarter mark of 1:11g, being the most noteworthy. The complete records of the course are now as follows:

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

C. J., Kenosha, Wis. Ida D. was out to show. O. B., St. Louis, Mo. Arch Oldham was out to G. D., Chicago. If the bet was plainly on Adriana was a draw.

Frank H., Newport, Ky. Adrian was unplaced ad the bet lost.

Mulligan, Cincinnati, O. Arondack's place price as 7 to 1, show 3 to 1. Del, Chicago. Cannot inform you. All that was ceured from there was published.

M. G. E., Chicago, The wager lost. To have won it was necessary that the horse backed should finish one of the first three, H. M. B., Toronto, Ont. The settlement being on newspaper prices would obviously be on the prices of the race that was run and the better's contention was probably correct,

C. L. P., Pittsburg, Pa. Obviously the bookmaker is wrong. The "hunch" in his bookmaking prices being in dollars, it should also be in dollars in mutuel prices. To make it in cents would be no con-

Farmer, Cincinnati, O. The parlay was void as to Ching Hare and should be paid as a winner on Deuce and Imboden. Even if Ching Hare had won he could not have been counted as a factor after it was declared "no race."

JUMPERS OF THE PAST AND PRESENT.

JUMPERS OF THE PAST AND PRESENT.

A Canadian writer entertains a poor opinion of the present generation of steeplechasers, as compared with some of the splendid jumpers of the early '70's, and in a recent article says: "It is quite the fashion nowadays for a certain class of turfmen, who know nothing about the subject, to pretend that reference to old-time performers is of no value, because the horses of the present day run so much faster. Verily these modern critics know nothing about the subject they prattle so glibly about. The jumpers of past years could give away many a stone in weight to the riffraff crowd of jumpers that formed the majority at the late Woodbine meeting. It is really an insult to the old-timers to link the present crocks with them even for comparison's sake. I lift my hat to such past glants as Milesian. Duffy, Wild Rose, Jack-on-the-Green, Pilot, Jack the Barber, Kelso, Blackbird, Mitchell, Viley, Charlemagne, Tradewind and then in later years, Hercules and Lion Heart.

"I saw Milesian with 168 pounds up start at 3:30 p. m. against eleven horses in the Montreal Hunt Club Cup, distance three miles, over the McDongall farm, back of the mountain, as rough a bit of country as ever chasers were asked to perform over. It was over stone walls, some of them four feet high; snake fences, swampy ground, up bill and down dale, and the splendid son of Mickey Free, giving away lumps of weight to everything in the race, won handily. One hour after the finish of this race Mr. Banatyne, his owner, brought him out to start in the open steeplechase against twelve fresh horses, distance three and one-half miles.

"As that gentleman owned another good performer in Duffy, which was in good shape, and was eligible for the then open race, he was urged to start the fresh horse, but he declined, stating he had made up his mind to win the double event with Milesian, He was also determined to ride the horse himself. Considering that the performers of ve olden days.

"As that gentleman owned another good performer
